

ICT Environmental, Sustainability and Supply Chain Counsel Roundtable

Thursday, October 4, 2018

Garden Court Hotel, 520 Cowper Street, Palo Alto, CA | Terrace Room
Webinar: Click here | Teleconference: +1-240-454-0879, access code: 738 343 700

AGENDA

12:00-1:00 p.m.

Casual Lunch

Terrace Room Balcony

1:00-1:15 p.m.

Welcome and Introductions

Terrace Room

- Discussion goals
- Review of Antitrust Guidelines

Lauren Hopkins, Beveridge & Diamond, P.C. (San Francisco, CA)

Rick Goss, Information Technology Industry Council (Washington, DC)

1:15-2:15 p.m.

Furthering the Circular Economy: New Country Requirements and the Basel Convention

- Classification of Shipments for Repair and Refurbishment
- Negotiations on Amendments to the Convention (UEEE and e-waste)
- Country import bans
- Coordinating ICT sector advocacy

Paul Hagen, Beveridge & Diamond, P.C. (Washington, DC)

Rick Goss, Information Technology Industry Council (Washington, DC)

2:15-2:30 p.m.

Coffee Break

2:30-3:30 p.m.

Global Marine Plastics Initiatives: ICT Sector Impacts?

- Proposed amendments to the Basel Convention
- China import ban and the fallout
- EU Plastics Strategy
- G7 Ocean Plastics Charter
- Company initiatives

Russ LaMotte, Beveridge & Diamond, P.C. (Washington, DC)

Ellen Jackowski, HP Inc. (Palo Alto, CA)

3:30 – 4:15 p.m.

California Proposition 65 Update

- Revised “Clear and Reasonable” Warning Approaches
- Supply Chain Challenges
- Private Enforcement of Revised Warnings – Early Impressions

Lauren Hopkins, Beveridge & Diamond, P.C. (San Francisco, CA)

4:15 – 5:00 p.m.

Other “Hot Topics” and Next Meeting

5:00 – 7:00 p.m.

Reception

Il Fornaio (in hotel)