Betsy DuSold, Eli Lilly

Paul Hagen, Beveridge & Diamond

• Roundtable Discussion on Federal and State Climate Change Initiatives •

Invited Speaker: Roger S. Ballentine, President of Green Strategies, Inc.

The Trump Administration is doing all it can to roll back the climate change policies of the Obama Administration. Will they succeed? And does it really matter? The vast majority of other countries continue to pursue decarbonization; many U.S. states continue to pursue climate and clean energy initiatives; the economics of clean energy are driving deployment in the states irrespective of federal policy; and leading corporations remain committed to implementing their own climate and sustainability goals.

1:30 p.m. – 2:00 p.m.
