Beveridge & Diamond

Brian Elizalde

Associate

belizalde@bdlaw.com

+1.512.391.8002

200 West 6th Street, Suite 1950, Austin, TX, 78701

Brian helps clients navigate litigation and regulatory matters related to water, natural resources, and public lands.

His experience includes supporting client counseling and litigation strategy matters involving the Comprehensive Environmental Response, Compensation, and Liability Act (CERCLA), National Environmental Policy Act, and other environmental and water law issues.

Before joining Beveridge & Diamond, Brian interned with the U.S. Department of the Interior's Office of the Solicitor, where he researched property and water law issues affecting federal infrastructure projects. He also completed an externship with the New York Attorney General's Environmental Protection Bureau.

In law school, Brian worked as a student attorney in the Environmental Justice Clinic. He was also a Coach in the Native American Law Student Association's moot court team and an Executive Editor in the Columbia Journal of Environmental Law.

Education

- Brown University (B.A., with Honors, 2019)
  - International Development
  - Minor in Ethnic Studies
- Columbia Law School (J.D., 2026)
  - Native American Law Student Association, President
  - Columbia Journal of Environmental Law, Executive Editor

Bar Admissions

- Texas

Languages

- Spanish (Native)

Beveridge & Diamond

Publications

August 8, 2025
Emerging Developments in the Treatment and Beneficial Use of Produced Water in Texas
Beveridge & Diamond

July 16, 2025
The One Big Beautiful Bill Act Is Very Ugly for Wind and Solar
Beveridge & Diamond

June 20, 2025
Canada Issues Guidelines on Civil Greenwashing Claims One Year After Amendments to the Competition Act
Beveridge & Diamond