

Felicia L. Isaac

Associate

fisaac@bdlaw.com

+1.202.789.6029

1900 N Street, NW, Suite 100, Washington, DC, 20036

Felicia is a former Attorney-Advisor at the Department of Energy Office of General Counsel.

She has experience in civil and criminal enforcement under the Clean Water Act, Clean Air Act, and CERCLA, as well as in land use, environmental remediation and permitting, and property transactions.

During her time with the Department of Energy, Felicia provided statutory analysis and guidance to senior Departmental management on issues pertaining to fiscal law, data privacy, ethics, constitutional law, and federal appropriations. She also advised Department officials on pending and proposed legislation developed by members of Congress or federal agencies and provided counsel on relevant Freedom of Information Act and Privacy Act litigation.

As a law student, Felicia worked on the Department of Justice's Clemency Project which aided inmates seeking clemency in support of the Attorney General's initiative for prison reform. Felicia has also worked as a law clerk for the Defense Intelligence Agency, the Revitalizing Auto Communities Environmental Response Trust, the Federal Mine Safety and Health Review Commission, and the Environmental Protection Agency.

Felicia is admitted only in Virginia. Practicing pursuant to D.C. App. Rule 49(c)(8) under the direct supervision of Principals of the Firm

Education

- State University of New York - Albany (B.A., 2011)
 - Athletic Scholarship for Women's Basketball (2007-2011)
 - University at Albany Women's Basketball, Captain
 - Commissioner's Academic Honor Roll
- Howard University (J.D., 2015)
 - James Cobb Donor Scholarship
 - CALI Award for Academic Excellence in Federal Criminal Law

Bar Admissions

- Virginia

Publications

June 24, 2021

Supreme Court Finds Fifth Amendment Taking in State Regulation Granting Access to Private Property

Beveridge & Diamond

March 11, 2021

U.S. Department of Energy Looks to Reinvigorate Appliance and Equipment Standards Program

Beveridge & Diamond

September 1, 2020

How Law Firms Can Hire And Retain More Black Attorneys

Law360