

Graham H. Pough

Associate

gpough@bdlaw.com

+1.512.391.8041

400 West 15th Street, Suite 1410, Austin, TX, 78701-1648

Graham focuses his practice on litigation and regulatory matters involving water resources. He helps clients navigate litigation in citizen suits, class actions, and enforcement resolutions.

Graham was a B&D summer associate in 2021. While working towards his J.D., Graham was the Editor-in-Chief of the Texas Environmental Law Journal, a Student Attorney for the Texas Environmental Law Clinic, and received honors for completing over 350 hours of pro bono work. Graham represented Texas at multiple interscholastic Moot Court and Mock Trial competitions and was inducted into the national advocacy honors society, The Order of Barristers. He also interned for the Environmental Defense Fund and for a Federal District Judge in Austin.

Prior to law school, Graham worked as an Assistant for Investigations and Financial Disclosure on the United States Senate Select Committee on Ethics.

Education

- Franklin & Marshall College (2016)
 - Business and English Double Major
- University of Texas School of Law (J.D., 2022)
 - Editor-in-Chief, Texas Environmental Law Journal
 - Pro Bono Honors
 - Order of Barristers

Bar Admissions

- Texas

Outside the Office

Graham has dedicated himself to long-distance backpacking and cycling trips, having hiked the 2,200-mile Appalachian Trail, 400 miles of the Pacific Crest Trail, and biked roughly 1,500 miles across Europe and the United States.

Publications

May 5, 2023

New Enforcement of PFAS Requirements in CWA NPDES Industrial Permit

Beveridge & Diamond