Katrina helps clients navigate Superfund, site remediation, and waste-related matters.

Katrina's experience includes researching hazardous substances at brownfield sites and complex litigation issues involving toxic tort claims and waste disposal facilities. As a legal intern with the National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration (NOAA), she researched CERCLA issues, including the requirements for completing remedial actions.

Before joining Beveridge & Diamond, Katrina served as a judicial intern to the Honorable Randolph D. Moss and the Honorable Loren L. AliKhan, both of the U.S. District Court for the District of Columbia.

Prior to law school, Katrina served in the Peace Corps in Mozambique and worked as a senior professional staff member in the U.S. House of Representatives' Office of Diversity and Inclusion.
